PROSPECTUS 2022-2023

INTRODUCTION

Christ College Thalassery, has been an outstanding and leading academic institution in thalassery since its inception in 1980. With its unique features and emphasis on discipline and quality education, it witnessed steady growth. In 1984, it was got registration as the prime unit of the Educational and Cultural Society.

To further enhance the academic standards and to provide better amenities to the students, the governing body of the college decided that the college should function in its own building. The construction of the four storied building near the town hall was completed and the college began functioning from here in 2005.

Now Christ College dominates the parallel college field in Kerala. Befitting its premier position, We provide ten graduation programme and six post graduation programmes of approved universities. In the academic field we have a history of taking along the marginalised also in our fold. With the support of our well wishers we shall continue to excel.
